

These are the employees who are appointed on a term basis. They receive compensation on a daily rate and are required to render 40 hours of service in a week and may or may not be renewed upon the expiration of the 6-month contract.

Part 3

EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Chapter 1. Employee Compensation

Section 1. Pay and Procedure

Employees are paid bi-monthly, one week after every 15th and last working day of the month. Payment is for the preceding 15-day period. Regular employees will be paid with a pre-determined compensation, while Job order employees will have to submit their accomplishment report every 16th and 31st day of the month. If the 16th or the last day of the month falls on a weekend, then employees are asked to submit their report on Monday of the following week.

Section 2. Overtime Policy

For employees, especially to Job Order faculty and staff, to avail compensatory over time they must submit a request for over-time letter signed by their office head/dean. Over-time hours are only applicable on weekends where employees will be paid with their daily rate given that their duty hours are from 8 A.M. to 5 P.M.

Chapter 2. Leave Benefits

Section 1. Basic Policy

- 1.1. Application for leave of absence except for emergency sick leave shall be filed in advance, whenever possible, five (5) days before the effectivity of leave.
- 1.2. Employees who are absent without approved leave shall be entitled to receive their salary corresponding to the period for their unauthorized leave of absence.
- 1.3. Employees who are continuously absent without approved leave for at least thirty (30) working days shall be considered AWOL and shall be separated from the service or dropped from the rolls without prior notice. However, they shall be informed at their last known address appearing on their 201 files of their separation from the service, not later than five (5) days from its effectivity.
- 1.4. If the number of unauthorized absences is less than thirty (30) days, a written Return-to-Word Order shall be served to them at their last known address on record. Failure on their part to report for work within the period stated in the order shall be a valid ground for dropping them from the rolls.

Section 2. Approved Leaves

Adopting the Omnibus Rules on Leave issued by the Civil Service Commission, the following leaves shall be given to employees of the government whether permanent, temporary, or casual who render work during the prescribed office hours.

Granted on account of sickness or disability of the employees or any member of their family (parents, brother, sisters, children, and spouse). Application for sick leave shall be filed upon return to work. Application for sick leave filed in advance, or exceeding five (5) days shall be accompanied by a medical certificate. Approved sick leave submitted to the HRMO later than the 6th working day after the leave of absence shall be deducted from the employee's salary.
